HOME OWNERSHIP PRESERVATION-FORECLOSURE PREVENTION

The Homeownership Preservation Initiative (HOPI) is a partnership between the City of Chicago, Neighborhood Housing Services of Chicago, and key lending, investment and servicing institutions doing business in Chicago. The partnership seeks to reserve homeownership whenever possible and keep families in their homes through counseling, loss mitigation and loan workouts. When foreclosure is unavoidable, the partners seek to preserve the vacant properties as neighborhood assets. For more information call 311 and ask for the HOPI program.
